CITY NEWS NOTES.

The Superior Court met in general term for a few minutes yesterday morning, but, on account of its being Labor day, adjourned until this morning. The restraining order issued by Judge Woods against Eugene V. Debs and local members of the A. R. U. expires to-day. A · number of the strikers have entered their appearance by attorney. The Knights of Pythias who attended the encampment at Washington have returned, and some of them are not feeling as comfortable as they might. This is because of the fact that the Indiana divisions were not more successful in the drills.

Supreme Court Must Decide It. The appointments on the board of civilservice examiners by the Mayor have been sustained by Judge Brown, who held yesterday that the appointments did not exceed the authority vested in the Mayor by the city charter. The decision was made in the suit of William D. Newcomb against the city to enjoin the board from carrying out the code of rules adopted by it. He contended that it was the establishment of another department, and unauthorized by the charter. Judge Brown holds that it is not, but is simply a means of carrying out the work, and is not taking the work out of the hands of the city. The Supreme Court will now be called upon to settle the question for all time, as the plaintiff took an appeal from the decision of the Circuit Court. Brightwood Vs. Oakland. The Brightwood Baseball Club yesterday defeated the Oakland team by a score of 30 to 9. The game was played on the grounds of the latter club.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SIOUX CITY, Ia., Sept. 3 .- The Hoosiers were defeated twice this afternoon by the "Huskers." H. S. Buchanan, decorator, 126 West Sixth street, Indianapolis, says: "For years after eating I would feel as if I had a lump of lead in my stomach. This, with a sourness rising into my mouth, would make me feel miserable beyond the power of words to tell. I have taken one box of LYON'S SEVEN WONDERS and it has done me a world of good. TWENTY THOUSAND WORKINGMEN IN LINE AT NEW YORK.

Many Marchers at Chicago Despite a Rainstorm-Celebrations in New England and Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3 .- Labor made an imposing demonstration here to-day. The weather was favorable for marching, the sun being obscured by a haze, while-a cool breeze from the east made the air bracing. Not far from twenty thousand men, representing all the trades, were in line, and here and there in the procession were bands of women from the various assemblies, such as the cloakmakers. Cooper Union was the focus about which the bodies gathered for the parade. It was some time after the hour set for the start-10 o'clock-before the procession was gotten under way. The first division, which formed in Astor place, was composed, for the most part, of those engaged in the stone industries, while the theatrical trades brought up the rear. The line of march was up Fourth avenue to Union square, to Seventeenth street, to Fifth avenue, to Fifty-ninth street, where the procession disbanded. Such of the marchers as were so disposed proceeded thence to the picnic of the Central Labor Union at Brommer's Union Park, but at least as many others finished the day in pleasure seeking with wives and children in other ways.

In Brooklyn the Central Labor Union had the direction of a grand parade.

No Holiday at San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3 .- Acting under Washington advices, the custom house, postoffice, subtreasury, mint and other departments of the government located in this city did not observe Labor day, but transacted business as usual. The United States courts, with the exception of the District Court, met as usual this morning, but an adjournment was immediately taken until to-morrow. United States District Attorney Garter is of the opinion that Labor day is a legal holiday, and court proceedings in that event might occasion trouble for the litigants. Collector Wise, Postmaster McCoppill and other federal officials had posted notices that their offices would be closed, but were subsequently notified that they must keep open unless the day should be made a legal holiday by proclamation of the Governor. As the California Legislature has selected the first Monday in October as Laber day and a State holiday, the Governor made no proclamation for to-day.

In New England.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.-Labor's holiday was celebrated throughout New England today. Business was generally suspended. In all the cities a wealth of entertainment and sport was offered and all day the streets were alive with bands of music and processions. In Boston over 15,000 were in line. This forenoon the annual barge races were rowed on the Charles river, fo lowed by the regatta of the New England Amateur Rowing Association, while half a lozen yacht clubs held their annual races during the day. Ball games, athletic contests and theatricals entertained thousands. In New Bedford and Fall River the great strikes were an incentive for a greater display than usual and the labor organiza-tions turned out with full ranks, bearing banners expressing the sentiment of the toilers regarding the situation.

Marred by Rain at Chicago. CHICAGO, Sept. 3.-Labor day was celebrated in Chicago in the rain. The letters on the silken banners lost their brilliancy and the gaudy uniforms of the marching unions grew sorry looking affairs under the steady downpour, but the enthusiasm of the laborers was undampened and twelve thousand men were in line when the picnic grounds were reached. The unions rendez-voused at Bricklayers' Hall, on the West Side, and at 11 o'clock moved across the river to the energetic music of a score of brass bands. At the Lincoln monument a reviewing stand had been erected and from it many prominent people viewed the parade. At Ogden's Grove the procession was disbanded and the usual Labor day picnic with addresses by prominent trades unionists followed.

30,000 in Line at Omaha. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 3 .- Fifty thousand people participated in the Labor day celebration in Omaha to-day. Hundreds from all over the State were present. Thirty thousand representatives of Nebraska labor unions were in the procession. The city was in holiday attire. The demonstration concluded with a picule at Syndicate Park. The city salesmen and trades display formed the finishing touch to the parade in a way which demonstrated the extent and strength of their forces. All sorts of wagons, floats, carriages and ve-hicles were in line, representing almost every imaginable article of domestic consumption. The Legal Holiday Act. WASHINGTON, Sept. 3 .- To-day being Labor day, all the government departments and public offices were closed, as were a great many stores and public places. The labor organizations paraded and spent the day at a park in the outskirts. The act
